

Well Dunn, Harry Dunn

Extra Extra this news is to be read
That Harry Dunn's pencil has run out of lead
No slur on H's vigour or vitality is intended
Just that Harry's position as reporter has ended
5 years of following the Men's bowling matches
Photo taking and writing the results for dispatches
All for weekly submission to the local rag
To give members the lowdown and let winners brag
H's pencil has written its last piece of bowling history
What's next for this ex-correspondent is a mystery
We thank you Harry for your diligence and commitment as you retire
So put that pencil safety away and do whatever you desire.
